CORRECTED ORDER

On May 22, 2013, Administrative Law Judge Michael A. Marcionese, of the National Labor Relations Board issued his Decision in the above-entitled proceeding and, on the same date, the proceeding was transferred to and continued before the Board in Washington, D.C. The Administrative Law Judge found that the Respondent has engaged in certain unfair labor practices, and recommended that it take specific action to remedy such unfair labor practices.

The Respondent and General Counsel filed timely exceptions to the judge's decision. On March 26 and 30, 2015, respectively, the General Counsel and Respondent filed letters with the Board withdrawing their exceptions. The General Counsel's and Respondent's withdrawals of exceptions are hereby granted.

Accordingly, as there are no exceptions pending before the Board, and the time allowed for such filing having expired.

Pursuant to Section 10(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, and Section 102.48 of the National Labor Relations Board's Rules and Regulations, the Board adopts the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge as contained in his Decision, and orders that the Respondent, Domsey Trading Corporation, Domsey Fiber Corporation and Domsey International Sales Corporation, A Single Employer and Arthur Salm, Individually, its officers, agents, successors and assigns, shall take the action set forth in the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge.

Dated, Washington, D.C., April 15, 2015.

By direction of the Board:
